WHITE SLAVERY CHARGE BROUGHT BY GIRL TODAY AGAINST "DR." ALLEN

ENTICED HER TO LA CROSSE FOR SHOW POSITION

Threatened to Kill Her
When She Fought Him
Off, Declares Lydie
Nelson

GROCERYMAN AIDED ESCAPE

Girl Appealed to J. B. Murray for Aid, and He Called Upon the Police

WAS AFTER OTHER WOMEN

Miss Nelson Says She Wrote Letters for Him
by Which He Sought to Entangle Others

Dr. Ralph (alias Robert)
Allen was bound over to circuit court under $3,000 bail
by Judge C. L. Baldwin
this afternoon.

"Dr." or "Professor" Ralph Allen, famous in La Crosse and a dozen cities in the state because of his various "matrimonial" entanglements and trials on statutory charges
has again broken into the limelight. Accused by Lydie Nelson of St. Paul, Minn., a beautiful little dark eyed girl twenty years of age,

Thompson's Statement
Interviewed after the hearing this morning District Attorney James Thompson made
the following statement:
"I consider the case very important and that the story
told by this innocent girl cannot fail to convince an unprejudiced mind of its truth. The matter should, and will be sit-
ted to the bottom and the guilty party prosecuted to the full extent of the law."

Dr. Allen was arraigned in county court and pleaded not guilty this morning to what amounts to a "white slavery" charge which if proven will send the "doctor" to the state prison
at Waupun for a term not less than five and not more than fifteen years.

The preliminary hearing, in which Miss Nelson was the only witness,
was held before Judge C. L. Baldwin, the case being taken from Judge John Brindley on motion by the defense on the grounds of alleged prejudice. The hearing started at ten o'clock and adjourned at twelve to reconvene at 1:30 p. m.

Threatened Her Life

Miss Nelson, who brought the complaint against Dr. Allen, declares that he enticed her to La Crosse on the pretense that she was to take the leading part in a dramatic production entitled "The Wrong Wife," which he was organizing and preparing to send on the road. She declares that the play failed to materialize and that he merely took her from her home for immoral purposes. When she fought to preserve her honor, she says that he threatened to kill her.
It was her refusal to sign an agreement that she would stick to him "for good or bad, better or worse forever" and to keep this agreement secret that led to the threats on her life and her going to the police for protection.

The Complaint

The complaint upon which Dr.
Allen had his preliminary hearing in court this morning is given as follows:

The State of Wisconsin Against Ralph Allen.

Lydie Nelson, being duly sworn,
says that on the 2nd day of June,
1912, at the city of La Crosse, Wis., Ralph Allen did unlawfully, knowingly, designedly, fraudulently and deceitfully falsely pretend to her, said
complainant, that he was the manager of a certain theater company
and was obliged in said business to employ young girls to take part in giving theatrical performances and
desired to employ her, said complainant, for such purpose.

That, by means of false representations aforesaid, the said Ralph Allen, did then and there unlawfully,
fraudulently and deceitfully entice,
seduce and decoy her, said complainant, a woman over sixteen years of age and of previous chaste

LA FOLLETTE MEN WILL STEER CLEAR

Walter L. Houser Says the Wisconsin Delegation
Will Avoid Taft
and T. R.

EXPECT TO HAVE POWER

Control Will Not Be Used
by Senator as Trading Medium for Either Side

CHICAGO, June 13.—In a statement issued today from the La Follette headquarters, Walter L. Houser, campaign manager for the Wisconsin senator, said:

"No vote will be cast by the La Follette delegates that can in any way aid either Taft or Roosevelt.
From our viewpoint, they are both bad—probably equally bad. Neither in matters of organization or on contests will we cast any vote that will make us in the slightest degree responsible for the nomination of either."

Houser made it plain that the La Follette delegation, which he believes will hold the balance of power,
will win or lose on the principles
for which Senator La Follette stands.
He said they will not be caught by any appeal to home pride, and that if—as has been suggested—the name of Governor McGovern of Wisconsin for temporary chairman is put forward by either side, they will remain silent. On contests he said they would be guided wholly by the merits of each individual case.
"If we hold the balance of power,"
said Houser, "we will not make it a trading stock for place, power or platform. Were we offered to be allowed to write the platform in exchange for votes for Roosevelt, we would refuse, because we would believe the platform would be compromised and betrayed later. We have no sympathy with Taft or his policies."

DYNAMITE BRINGS RAIN

SAN ANGELO, Texas, June 13.—
They are cracking rain from the clouds with dynamite in Texas and San Angelo is rejoicing today over a two inch rain that fell. Three thousand pounds of dynamite were used in the trial and the rainmakers declare they can bring a shower any time the town desires. The town raised a $3,000 rain fund. Stamford, Abeline and Haskell will also dynamite
for rain.

COLONEL LEAVES TONIGHT

NEW YORK, June 13.—Colonel Roosevelt is preparing to leave for Chicago tomorrow night, or Saturday, according to those in close touch with him here. There were evidences of bustle and preparation at Sagamore Hill. The telephone and telegraph wires, which connect the colonel with his headquarters at La Crosse were being worked to the limit
it was said.

SHOOTS DIVORCED HUSBAND

CHICAGO, June 13.—Mrs. Ellen Miller, arrested on a charge of shooting her divorced husband, William A.
Miller, today admitted shooting him
but told the police that since they had been divorced, he had insulted
her on the street several times and that early this morning he came to her home, entered her room by a window and attacked her. He may die.

States marshalship by the Taft people if he would go over. I told him not to take any phony money, for his name would never see the light of day when it came to confirmation
in the senate."

Dixon declared he stands ready to name the committeeman who was offered the appointment as a "bribe."
"Talk about bribery," Dixon shouted, "how is that? I want a show-down from McKinley on his bribery charges. It is easy to put out cheap claptrap. Let them specify the names of people involved."

With this deft, challenging widest publicity, Dixon added "cuttlefish"
to the list of the pet names he has already given McKinley.

"McKinley is like the cuttlefish
you have read about that muddies
the water that its own hideousness
may not be seen," he said.

Dixon declared, however, that his private advice are that the southern delegates are seething with revolt.
"These southerners will speak for themselves when the time comes," he declared. "They realize the real sentiment of the republican party and three from Alabama have already left the Taft camp."

Referring to the action today of the national committee on the Missouri contests, Dixon said: "These Missouri delegates at large were elected by a majority of 450 in a convention duly called, organized and conducted. After the convention adjourned, the next day, the Taft people met and organized this 'contest' of theirs. That shows the real merits of the case."

Charge Roosevelt Bribery

The charge of bribery and attempted tampering with delegates brought by the Taft forces and challenged by the Roosevelt managers, overshadowed all else in the minds of the republican party chieftains here today.
Following the emphatic denial of Senator Dixon for the Roosevelt forces that there was the slightest foundation for the charges, came a concerted demand that Congressman

Urges Colonel To Go To Chicago

NEW YORK, June 13.—The Evening Mail, leading supporter of Roosevelt among the New York newspapers, today carried
the following as an eight-column banner across the top of the first page:

"The Evening Mail has not believed it possible that a situation could arise in Chicago
that would justify Col. Roosevelt's presence in that city;
but we now demand of him, in the name of a majority of republicans in the great republican states of the north, that he assume personal direction
of the struggle there against the theft of a presidential nomination by a candidate repudiated in every primary election,
or popular poll, north or south.
The next president must be a republican—no candidate with a tainted title can be elected."

UNCLE SAM LENT MORGAN THE CASH

$25,000,000 With Which J.
P. Saved Stock Exchange Came from Treasury

NEW YORK, June 13.—Testifying today before the Pujo congressional committee investigating the Money trust, George B. Cortelyou, who was secretary of the treasury at the time of the 1907 panic, told how the government loaned J. Pierpont Morgan the $25,000,000 which Morgan in turn loaned to banks, and thus broke the backbone of the panic in October 24, 1907, sending call money down from 125 to 6 per cent. It was the first time that the details of how the treasury came to the rescue of the stock exchange was ever told by an authority as high as the ex-treasurer.

AUTHORIZE HANFORD PROBE

WASHINGTON, June 13.—Chairman Clayton of the judiciary committee, was today authorized by the house to begin an investigation of the sensational allegations filed against Judge Cornelius Hanford of Seattle by Representative Norris of Nebraska and Berger of Wisconsin.

FIRE KILLS COUPLE

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 13.— Mrs. Christine Swanson, 65, was killed by jumping from a third story
window and August Swanson, 70,
her husband, was smothered to death
by smoke in a fire early today in a duplex house.

IRISH SUFFRAGETTES RIOT

DUBLIN, June 13.—Militant suffragettes today went on a rampage,
smashing windows and being arrested.

SALOONKEEPERS NEAR TIME LIMIT

Only twenty-five saloon keepers of the 150 in La Crosse have thus far filled application for saloon license
with the city clerk. All who wish to procure license must make application before noon Saturday, according to the law governing the granting of license. All applications made after that day will be deferred until after July 1 for consideration.

HALLINGSLAG IN SESSION TODAY

Opera House at Spring
Grove Crowded by Visiting Hallings at First Meeting

LEEDS AFTER 1913 MEET

North Dakota Town Is Leading in the Contest
to Secure Next Sterne

SPRING GROVE, Minn., June 13.
—(Special.)—The first meeting of the Hallingslag, or official body of Hallings, at the big Halling Stevne
now in session here, was held yesterday afternoon, with as many visiting and resident Hallings as could be crowded into the opera house
present. The town of Spring Grove is decorated in every available spot
with banners and "Welcome" signs,
and the intertwined American and Norwegian flags are everywhere visible. It is estimated that almost four thousand people, the majority of them from North Dakota, are renewing old ties in this little city.

Come by Carload.
The town swarms with notables
from all over the northwest. The slogan "Nei er du her?" is in everyone's mouth. Two special coaches from Fargo, N. D., arrived Tuesday evening, two coaches of Hallings
got in last night, and two more carloads came this morning.

There is a contest between several cities of the northwest for the Stevne next year, with Leeds, N.
D., making a strong fight and apparently the favorite.

The first meeting of the Hallings-
lag opened with a speech of welcome by Mayor G. C. Glasrud, following music by the Spring Grove orchestra. A speech of welcome in the Halling dialect was delivered by A. O. Roppe. The welcome was ac-knowledgeed by Rev. Strand, in a speech in which he complimented the city for the arrangements that had been made for the comfort of the visitors. Election of officers was held this morning.

Last night the visiting Hallings
were entertained by Hayden's "Creation," sung by the Spring Grove Choral club of sixty voices, accompanied by the Luther college orchestra. The Choral club was assisted by Marion Green, Chicago,
bass; Miss Clara Williams, Minneapolis, soprano; and Rev. O. J.
Kvale, Orfordville, Wis., tenor.

Folk Dances.
The national costume of Norway
was in evidence today, when the Halling and spring dances were demonstrated. Music was supplied by the old-time fiddler.

Tomorrow morning the visitors
will be given an auto ride to Caledonia, over 200 autos being expected to be in line for the journey.
The run will start at 8 o'clock, and a half hour stop will be made at Caledonia, allowing the visitors
time to return to Spring Grove for an old-country dinner at 1:30.
This evening there will be a big banquet in the church parlors, with an expected attendance of 600.

APPROVE DISSOLUTION PLAN

WILMINGTON, Del., June 13.—
Federal Judges Gray, Buffington
and McPherson today handed down
the decree approving the plan for the dissolution of the powder trust.

COMMITTEE GIVES T. R. DELEGATION AT LARGE FROM 'SHOW ME' STATE

METER TESTING TO BE REFERRED

City Sealer Reports Ordinance on Meter Testing
to State Inspector
for His Decision

JURISDICTION IS QUESTIONED

Action of Council Providing for Fee Thought to Conflict with State Laws

Eugene Derr, city sealer of weights and measures today declared that he is about to refer the question of his jurisdiction relative to the testing of water meters to F. P. Downing,
state inspector of weights and measures. This action is the result of an ordinance recently passed by the city council, prohibiting the testing
of water meters except by application to the board of public works and providing for a fee for each test
made.

Under the provisions of the state law governing the duties of city sealers, the city sealer is ordered to test
all weighing and measuring devices
and that without charge.

There is no provision in the law
excluding the testing of water meters and as a penalty is provided for
in cases where false meters are used,
the common interpretation of the law
is that meters are included, coming under the head of a measuring device. The decision of Mr. Downing will decide the action to be taken by Mr. Derr.

Scales Numerous

Mr. Derr today declared that there are more scales in the city of La Crosse than can be properly tested
by one man in a year.

"I have been making visits
throughout the city in order to familiarize myself with the work," said Mr. Derr today, "and I find that the number of scales in La Crosse greatly exceeds my former estimate. In the Doerflinger Park Store alone
there are over 40 scales while there are about 100 in use in the Listman Mill company plant. The number in use in the stores throughout the city is also greatly in excess of the number which I thought were in use."

To Start Soon

The apparatus to be used as standard weights and measures by the city sealer has not yet arrived and Mr.
Derr has been unable to start his active work.

Information received by him this morning from the company, however, is to the effect that the shipment will be sent to Madison and will arrive there about June 20. They will be tested there by the department of weights and measures and will then be sent to La Crosse.

Mr. Derr is in receipt of a letter from Chief Inspector Downing to the effect that he will come to La Crosse about July 1 and will assist in the early work of testing in this city.

SHERIFF THREATENS MILITIA

PERTH AMBOY, N. J., June 13.—
That the militia would be called out,
if they did not stop rioting, was the warning given 4,000 striking laborers of five local factories by Sheriff Bolschweiler today. He urged the men to conduct the strike peacefully.
"If more riots like yesterday's, in which seven strikers were shot by policemen and three deputies were cut by flying bricks, take place," said
the sheriff, "the state guard will be quartered here."

SAVED FROM SINKING SHIP

NEW ORLEANS, La., June 13.—
Starving and suffering intensely from exposure the crew of seven men of the lumber laden schooner,
Homot, was picked up fifty miles off
Louisiana coast today by the steamship Geesende. The schooner sank in a few minutes after the men had been taken off, having been badly damaged in a recent storm.

U. S. SHIP LOST

WASHINGTON, June 13.—Lost in the Straits of Magellan is the fate of the crew of the American steamer
Virginia which has been wrecked off
Cape Horn, according to a dispatch
from Consul C. L. Latham at Punta Arenas today. Chilean warships are now searching for the men.

FORMER TWIRLER HURT

LOGAN, Ohio, June 13.—Although still alive today, physicians will give no definite assurance of the recovery of Jack Taylor, former baseball twister, who with five companions was injured when the automobile in which they were riding turned turtle after throwing a tire near here.

ONE DELEGATE SWITCHES

Instructed for Taft, He Says He Will Give
His Vote to the Colonel

COLISEUM, CHICAGO, June 13.—The Missouri district contests were settled by an agreement whereby Roosevelt got
the delegates from four of the ten contested districts in Missouri and Taft six.

Under the agreement the entire contests in these districts
go before the committee on credentials when named "without prejudice" and today's arrangement, while on the surface
seemingly benefiting President Taft merely transferred the scene of the fight.

The national committee has adjourned until 9 o'clock Friday morning.

CHICAGO, June 13.—The first sweeping victory for Roosevelt forces before the republican national committee came this afternoon when the committee, on motion of Senator Penrose, placed the Roosevelt delegates at large from Missouri on the temporary roll of the convention.
Originally there were eight delegates elected with half a vote each. The committee desired that the representation from the state be the same as in other states and the proposition
was made that the first four names
on the list of delegates to the convention be made the regular delegates and the four other delegates be made the alternates. This was put up to Governor Hadley to decide.
delegates at large from Missouri:

The hearing of the Missouri cases was marked with better temper than any of the big contests that have so far preceded it. There seemed a disposition both on the part of the Taft and the Roosevelt members of the committee to probe the contest to the bottom, and every opportunity was taken to give the contestants a chance to tell their entire story.

The entire situation hinged on the question of whether there was an

WISCONSIN NEWS

BOOST MCGOVERN FOR CHAIRMAN

North Dakota Delegates
Will Support Wisconsin
Governor for Temporary Chairman

MADISON, Wis., June 13.—The North Dakota La Follette delegation will co-operate fully with the plans of the La Follette delegation steering committee as outlined in Milwaukee this week. North Dakota will support Gov. F. E. McGovern as temporary chairman of the convention. This word was received in Madison last night in the form of telegrams to Senator Sanborn, who has been in communication with the ten delegates of that state.

Everywhere about the capitol the plans of the "steering" committee are meeting with favor. Gov. McGovern is preparing a short speech in order to be ready for the occasion, when his name will be presented to the Chicago convention. It has not been decided as yet who will place the name of McGovern before the convention, as a temporary chairman, but that honor will probably go to North Dakota. R. M. Pollock of Fargo will second the nomination of Senator La Follette. At the executive office it was announced last night that the North Dakota delegates are working in entire harmony with the Wisconsin men.

BATHING PAVILION TO BE CONDEMNED

MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 13.—As the result of an inspection tour of the city parks with the park commissioners on Tuesday, Mayor Bading will take immediate steps to condemn the bathing pavilion of the south shore park, saying that in its present location only few feet from the Rusk avenue outlet, it is a menace to the health of the bathers.

TOMAH, WIS.

Mr. A. E. Logan died suddenly on Sunday afternoon, June 3rd, at his residence on Superior avenue. Mr. Logan had not been in the best of health for the past year. At the close of the war he became engaged in farming near Necedah. In 1873 he was married to Miss Mary E. Nuttall, who survives him. To them seven children were born, six of whom are living. Mr. A. N. Cross, a former resident of this city, now located in the northern part of Minnesota, stopped over here for a few hours between trains Wednesday to renew old acquaintances.

Mr. Geo. Organ is at present in Milwaukee attending the annual convention of the Mystic Workers.

Simplicity of Hair Dressing Now Fashionable

Women Favor Parted Locks—Puffs, Pompadours, Coronet Braids Going Out

The present fashion of wearing the hair softly parted, without puffs and braids, demands a naturally fine head of hair, and women with thin, faded hair are at their wits' end to know how to make it look well. The first step toward this end is to keep hair and scalp in a healthy condition by the systematic use of a stimulating tonic.

HAY'S HAIR HEALTH contains the ingredients needed to destroy dandruff germs and encourage rapid growth of strong, new hair. Those hopelessly dry, faded looking locks grow soft, lustrous and youthful and the whole appearance is improved. You can get it at Hoeschler Bros., A. Bellier, for 50c, or $1.00 per bottle, or from the Philo Hay Spec. Co., Newark, N. J.

A Million Boys Under 18 Fought in Our Civil War

Surprising, but true. The greatest conflict of modern times was largely fought by actual boys in blue and boys in gray. And thousands of them yet live to tell of those stirring times. That is what makes the publication of the famous BRADY WAR PHOTOGRAPHS through The Tribune all the more timely and fortunate. The veterans can see for themselves these pictures—taken just half a century ago, lost for many years, and now newly discovered. Perchance they can find their own likeness or that of a friend or relative here. Read the letter below—one of hundreds of such instances.

The Tribune Offers in these Photographs Accurate and Impartial Record of the War

It is accurate because based on actual photographs—and the camera is truthful.

Because it is the result not alone of one camera's work but of many—working independently of each other, North and South.

Because the camera is the most exact of witnesses, seeing far more and better than the eye.

It is impartial, because the best photographs on both sides have been secured.

Because the accompanying text has been prepared by unbiased writers on both sides.

Because the sole object has been to reinforce these wonderful pictures with all the facts as seen both North and South.

APPOINT FELLOWS FOR STATE CAPITOL

MADISON, Wis., June 13.—The appointment of eight college graduates to working fellowships at the University of Wisconsin in connection with the state railroad commission, the state tax commission and the insurance commissioner's office, has been announced. These fellowships provide that one-half the time must be spent in practical work on the commission to which the holder is appointed, and half the time in graduate study in the university.

On the railroad commission, the working fellows in transportation and public utilities are John Burton Ames, A. D., University of Michigan, and Richard Sterling Ely, A. B., Harvard university. On the same commission the two fellows in engineering are Daniel Elias Davis, C. E., Oslo state university, and August Herman Leschke, B. S., Trinity college.

The working fellows on the tax commission are John Goodwin Herndon, M. A., Washington and Lee university, and Henry Brainerd Nelson, University of Washington.

The two fellows appointed in the office of the insurance commissioner are William Warren Newsum, A. M., Columbia university, and Grady H. Hipp, A. B., Newberry college.

Among the most severely bitten were Edward Kuester, Fred Bretscher and Miss Mary Bibelhausen. The three persons have been sent to Madison to take pasteur treatment. The dog is still at large.

Good is slow, it ascends; evil is rapid, it descends; what wonder that it should make much way in a little time.—Madame Swetchine.

ALVORD TESTIFIES BEFORE COMMISSION

MADISON, Wis., June 13.—John W. Alvord, an engineer from Chicago, in his testimony before the railroad commission yesterday afternoon, in the case of the city of Green Bay against the Green Bay Water works, declared that the plant had a "going value" of $95,000. The city will dispute this testimony some time today, when Engineer Burns of Kansas City will be called to the stand. Before the commission can pass upon the adequacy of the rates of the company, the actual value of the plant must be determined. Among those present at the hearing are City Attorney Minnehan, Mayor Abrams and Judge Green.

HILL AFTER GOVERNORSHIP

MADISON, Wis., June 13.—Chas. L. Hill, Rosendale, notified the state convention of the prohibition party that he would accept the nomination on that ticket for governor. The convention refused to adopt a resolution asking the national convention to change the name of the party to "Nationalist." A platform calling for the adoption of a national prohibition law was adopted.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 13.—"Girls who can't behave in the city parks will be ordered to keep out," said the judge in district court on Wednesday in suspending sentence on Jennie Olewicz, charged by Patrolman Trydychewicz with being disorderly in Reservoir park Tuesday night. The girl promised to remain away from parks.

THREE FOR CONGRESS

MADISON, Wis., June 13.—There is a well substantiated rumor in political circles here that if the republican convention can nominate a candidate for president without a "rump" convention, three men will announce their candidacy for congress in the third district immediately. They are Charles L. Harper, Madison; Levi H. Bancroft, Richland Center and Senator Blaine.

FATHER HAS HIS REVENGE

Strikes at Sire Through Son and Gives His Expensive Daughter to Algernon.

"Sir," said Algernon, "I—I am—I mean I was going to—"

"Oh!" snapped her father. "So you were going to ask if you might marry my daughter—eh?"

There was anger and venom in his tone and Algernon looked round nervously.

"Remember, sir, that I—I—" "Listen!" broke in her father with a snarl. "Twenty years ago your father practically ruined me. I swore a vow that I would take vengeance. And now the chance I have longed for is come!"

"But, sir," quavered Algernon, "be merciful—"

"I will not!" thundered the old man. "I will have no mercy! I will strike at the father through the son! You want my daughter? Well, then, take her—take her!"

White, and shaking with malevolent triumph, he sank in his chair, and Algernon crept out of the house with a dim foreboding at his heart—Tit-Bits.

Iconoclast Resumes Work.

A Chicago physician has made a translation of an Egyptian papyrus which, it is claimed, discloses Hippocrates from his place as "father of medicine" by anticipating his discoveries some 5,000 years. Even appendicitis, it is asserted, is described in the old papyrus. It now remains for some one to show that Ecclesiastes' dictum, "There is nothing new under the sun," was really written by Pharaoh or Thothmes.

INCOME AND MATRIMONY

Dr. Wm. F. Dey, of La Grange, Ill., says that a slim pocketbook should not interfere with marriage. To prove this he has just married, although he is a "youngster" in his fession.

According to his theory, youth is more to be considered than poverty. Youth means health, and both these spell happiness. He believes the combination is worth far more than any amount of money which might be amassed by devoting years to the practice of his profession, before embarking on the sea of matrimony.

In the main, he is certainly right. If love is the impelling power, the absence of money will not be noticed. It is only when love flies out of the window that the up-to-date high-priced apartment, costly raiment and expensive amusements become vital considerations.

It is also true that an early marriage is a steady influence upon a young man just beginning a career. The necessity of economizing, the importance of success, the stress of keeping everlastingly at it—these are the essentials which keep young people together during the early years of their married life. The habit of looking at life together, rather than from opposite standpoints, is vital to the married happiness. The poorer young married people are, the closer are the ties which bind them together.

It is a pity that so much commercialism is allowed to creep into matrimonial affairs nowadays. When attempts are made to set down the minimum salary with which a man can safely undertake to support a wife, romance is eliminated and every girl is encouraged to sell herself to the highest bidder.

The time should come when love alone is again the all-important consideration. Then a young man may be given the proper incentive to pursue his life work happily, as well as successfully, and a young woman will cease to look upon herself as a subject of barter.

We have become money mad. But we are not happy. The only truly happy men and women are the ones who look upon love, rather than money, as the essential thing in life.

ED CONWAY HE'S A DESPERATE MAN

The respect which we entertain for those who are sincerely devoted to the Public Welfare movement detracts little from the regret occasioned by the arrest of "Ed" Conway in connection with the operation of a candy wheel at the carnival. Mr. Conway is a decent young man who for years has added to his income from services rendered a local public utility by selling his cleverness as an auctioneer. Civic societies, among them the Interstate fair, have shared in the profits of this work. That it builds upon the instinct to gamble is true; that Mr. Conway went into it with his eyes open is also true. But the impression that it savors of picking upon the little fellow is persistent.

TO SAVE THE FACE OF OLD MACHINE

Many people are perplexed by the attitude of certain leaders of the G. O. P. toward a nomination which they know will end in defeat. Why, it is asked, does Murray Crane want to nominate Taft? Why do Penrose and Murphy and that ilk want to nominate Taft?

The answer seems to us apparent. Messrs. Crane and Penrose do not expect to elect Taft. Each was beaten for delegate in his own state when carrying the Taft handicap. But these men prefer martyrdom in partisan warfare to annihilation in a factional encounter. If Taft is defeated by a democrat, the entire party goes with him; they personally will be comparatively inconspicuous in their defeat. But if they lose the nomination to a progressive, the result is personal humiliation, and repudiation by those to whom they have been wicked and slothful servants. "Misery loves company." Lost to party standing in their respective states, these men are willing to wreck the organization which fed them rather pay the penalty of their treason to American democracy.

Our faith in democracy should be strong enough to suggest that the civic problems which now annoy us be in some way formulated for the referendum. Both sides in this controversy would profit by knowing exactly what constitutes the majority public sentiment. As the situation is developing, we are threatened with a prolonged campaign of petty conflicts to which a decisive battle would be preferable.

A Federal jury has held the wall-paper trust guiltless of wrong doing. But there are those who will always believe that some of its paper is a crime.

The United States Supreme court is trying to decide when an egg is decayed. Why not get the expert testimony of some actors?

People who have children, and all people who are interested in children, and a great many easy-going grown ups upon their own accounts, would do well to give attention to a civic problem which might appropriately be entitled, "In re the slot machine vs. the savings bank."

Americans are the greatest users of coffee in the world, according to figures, but they are the greatest users of everything, even profanity.

A man with a wooden leg is walking around the world. He will probably make it if he keeps pegging away.

WISCONSIN MAN EDITOR

MADISON, Wis., June 13.—James H. Weir, who graduates from the College of Agriculture of the University of Wisconsin this month, has accepted a position with the Webb Publishing company of St. Paul, Mr. Weir who has specialized in agricultural journalism, will become book editor for the firm. His duties there will be to plan and edit agricultural books. During the past year Mr. Weir has been editor of the Wisconsin Country Magazine, the farm paper published by students of the College of Agriculture.

Quips and Cranks and Wanton Wiles

Profit.
His father had toiled and his father had saved,
His father left pleasure untasted;
When he might have had ease his father still slaved.
Afraid that a day might be wasted.

His father declined to be free from the grind
That hardened his soul and his senses;
He smothered all cravings of body and mind,
For the purpose of saving expenses.

His father, at last having wealth that was vast,
Went the way that all fathers must travel;
His grinding was done and his saving was past,
So they hauled him out over the gravel.

He inherited all that his father had gained
By striving and frowning at pleasure;
Not a lawyer, indeed, had a chance to proceed
For the chance of sharing the treasure.

With his gaze and his thoughts centered on the high spots,
His toes seldom touched on the level,
And, leaving a streak of blue smoke in his wake,
He hurried headlong to the devil.
S. E. Kiser.

The Strike Mania.

The schoolmaster had found his new class a very unruly one. During the first week he had caned everybody in the class twice, and there appeared to be every prospect of striking times to come. "Ah, boys," said the master one day, "my poor class has a hard life of it. You give him no rest at all, and work him from morning till night." "Yes, sir," piped the wit of the class, "I shouldn't be surprised if he were to come out on strike soon!" And, even as the youth predicted, the cane came out and struck.

A Rough Time

During a recent gale in the Fifth of Clyde the Campbelltown steamer was having a rough time in Kilbrannan Sound. In the passage-way to the cabin a clergyman was ineffectually trying to open his bag, and to steady himself he went down on his knees. An officer coming along the dimly-lit passage-way fell somewhat heavily over the kneeling parson, and, sitting up, sluttered out, "D—!t, man, this is no place for a prayer in, an' any way there's nae need for praying. The boat's no' gawn doon."

English Humor.

One of the stories told by Spencer Leigh Hughes in his speech in the house of commons is that of the small boy who was watching the speaker's procession. "Who, father, is that gentleman?" said the small boy, pointing to the chaplain. "That, my son," said the father, "is the chaplain of the house." "Does he pray for the members?" asked the small boy. The father thought a minute and then said: "No, my son; when he goes into the house he looks around and sees the members sitting there, and then prays for the country." —Cardiff Mail.

Heard a Scuffle.

One Sunday morning in a Scottish kirk the door had been left open during the service, a lamb which had lost its mother strayed into the church and began to disturb the congregation by its mournful cries.

Dawg Eat Dawg

News Item: Nine members of the Roosevelt campaign staff arrived in Chicago with a new campaign ditty, a companion to the Democratic "Houn' Song." They called it "Teddy's Bull Dawg."

This idea of meeting your competitors on their own ground and then going them some better is a good one. We've found it so. Just as Teddy has adopted a bulldog denoting strength and tenacity so do we beat our competitors by giving stronger values and sticking to the highest of quality at all times.

DON'T PULL OUT THE GRAY HAIRS

A Few Applications of a Simple Remedy Will Bring Back the Natural Color

"Pull out one gray hair and a dozen will take its place" is an old saying, which, to a great extent, true, if no steps are taken to stop the cause. When gray hairs appear it is a sign that Nature needs assistance. It is Nature's call for help. Gray hair, dull, lifeless hair, or hair that is falling out, is not necessarily a sign of advancing age, for there are thousands of elderly people with perfect heads of hair without a single streak of gray.

When gray hairs come, or when the hair seems to be lifeless or dead, some good, reliable hair-restoring treatment should be resorted to at once. Specialists say that one of the best preparations to use is the old-fashioned "sage tea" which our grandparents use. The best preparation of this kind is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a preparation of domestic sage and sulphur, scientifically compounded with later discovered hair tonics and stimulants, the whole mixture being carefully balanced and tested by experts.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is clean and wholesome and perfectly harmless. It refreshes dry, parched hair, removes dandruff and gradually restores faded or gray hair to its natural color.

Don't delay another minute. Start using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur at once and see what a difference a few days' treatment will make in your hair.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

Special Agent, O. T. Erhart, 518 Main St.

and bleats. The minister leaned over his desk, woke the clerk, who sat below, and whispered in audible tones—"Sandy, remove that lamb." Sandy accordingly proceeded to catch the lamb, and when, after an exciting chase round the church, he had got it safely by the scruff of the neck he led it round the aisle, calling to it in the gentlest of tones, all the way—"Come along, my wee lambie, come along." The door was reached at last, and quickly shut, but those of the congregation who were near that end of the church heard a scuffle and a kick, and an angry voice say, "Get out o' the hoose o' the Laard, ye ugly brute!"

Just For Recreation.

Dolph B. Atherton, secretary of the League of Republican clubs, is a politician and an authority on good stories. He tells this one:

During the coal strike in Scranton, Pa., many miners were idle, and the city authorities, taking advantage of the fact, had a lot of work done, putting in sewers, paving streets and laying wires underground. An old Irishman by the name of Mike Dooley had been employed in the mines, but took a temporary job digging ditches in the streets. One morning his friend, Pat Hoolligan, saw Mike at work and exclaimed: "Hello, Mike! What in the devil are you doing there?"

Mike leaned on his pick, looked up and said smilingly: "Oh, I thought I would work while I was idle." —Popular Magazine.

Wouldn't Admit It.

Several natives of Indiana, traveling on a railroad train, differed on the question whether a man born in that state could be distinguished at a glance.

They resolved to put it to a test, going through the train with the champion of the affirmative in command.

He paused in the first car and looked a passenger over narrowly. Then he went up to him and said: "Weren't you born in Indiana?" "I know I look that way," was the answer, "but I have been sick a long time." —Chicago Post.

PUBLIC DEBATE

To the Editor:
I think Alderman Marvin had better attend to other gambling that is going on in La Crosse than to stop candy wheels at the carnival. That is just fun, and a carnival without the candy wheels don't amount to much. There are other things he had better stop first. I have not played the candy wheel myself, but still I think Mr. Marvin should do the right thing first.

A friend in favor of having candy wheels,
Yours truly,
S. M. O.

GIVES THE REBELS TIME TO REPENT

HAVANA, June 13.—General Montenegro, commanding the Cuban federal forces, today issued a proclamation, extending the time when the negro rebels may surrender and receive the government's pardon, to June 22. Great suffering was reported from all parts of the province of Santiago, because of the lack of supplies. Raising negroes have spread devastation throughout the province. Heavy fighting today was reported from El Cobre. The German and French ministers at Havana demanded that Rear Admiral Osterhaus and his marines protect German and French subjects and their property.

Convention Sidelights

"Say fellow, I'd rather hunt ducks than eat," said Harry S. New of Indiana to a group of his fellow members. "Give me a good gun, a safe boat and have the birds plentiful and I won't ask for anything else in this world."

New spends at least a couple of months out of each year hunting ducks up north. He used to own a newspaper in Indianapolis, but since he sold that he has had plenty of time and also plenty of money with which to enjoy life.

It's not true that Senator Murray Crane of Massachusetts wears rubber heeled and rubber soled shoes. In the national committee hearings he wears a pair of "kicks" that actually have a lot of big nails in 'em. The reason he gets about so noiselessly is that he knows how to walk properly. Every time he takes a step the ball of his foot hits the floor first. In addition, Senator Crane is very thin and could not make much noise if he tried.

Cecil Lyon, national committeeman from Texas, dotes on carnations and it's seldom that he appears in public without one in his button-hole. Lyon is something of a dude, too. He wears white neckties, and fancy vests on workdays.

National Committeeman Vorys of Ohio came to the front in politics in 1908 when he managed the Taft interests in Ohio. Before that he was state insurance commissioner of Ohio. President Taft wanted him to take a job in the national administration but Vorys decided he could make more money practicing law in Columbus. His former home was in Lancaster, Ohio, which by the way, produced Dewey Hilles, Taft's private secretary.

A. M. Stevenson of Colorado, who is acting as proxy holder for various members of the national committee is the biggest man in the committee's hearing room. He doesn't weigh much under 275, has two chins, a massive head that is sparsely thatched with curly locks and he smokes cigarettes.

Victor Rosewater, chairman of the republican national committee, is not a bit handsome, but he's said to have a lot of brains. He is a little fellow, weighs about 140 and is about five feet four or five. Sitting at the table, gavel in hand, he might be taken for a young assistant secretary left temporarily in charge of affairs while the real boss is outside for a smoke. Rosewater looks to be about 30 but he hasn't seen his thirtieth birthday in many a year.

Senator Nathan B. Scott, member of the republican national committee from West Virginia is just back

So Tired of Tired Feet! Use TIZ

Gets the "Tired" Out in a Few Minutes, Makes Your Feet Sore-Proof

"O fudge! It's awful how tired feet make you feel tired all over—so dead tired. Then, when you've got a corn besides, and a bunion, and a few blisters, and your feet are terribly swollen, you don't care if you've got a million dollars—you're tired, that's all. A million dollars can't help you, any more than 25 cents will." A quarter buys a box of TIZ—a wonder for tired, sore, tender, chafed, blistered, swollen, sweaty, smelly feet, corns, callouses and bunions. chilhains and frost-bite. The moment you use it, you give a sigh of relief, and then you smile. There's nothing as good as TIZ, so don't accept any attempted imitation. TIZ draws out all the poisonous exudations that make foot troubles. TIZ, 25 cents a box, sold everywhere, or sent direct, on receipt of price, by Walter Luther Dodge & Co., Chicago, Ill. Recommended by all drug stores, department and general stores.

When You Think

Of the pain which many women experience with every month it makes the gentleness and kindness always associated with womanhood seem to be almost a miracle. While in general no woman rebels against what she regards as a natural necessity there is no woman who would not gladly be free from this recurring period of pain.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well, and gives them freedom from pain. It establishes regularity, subdues inflammation, heals ulceration and cures female weakness.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence strictly private and sacredly confidential. Write without fear and without fee to World's Dispensary Medical Association, R. V. Pierce, M. D., President, Buffalo, N. Y.

If you want a book that tells all about woman's diseases, and how to cure them at home, send 21 one-cent stamps to Dr. Pierce to pay cost of mailing only, and he will send you a free copy of his great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser—revised, up-to-date edition, in paper covers. In handsome cloth-binding, 31 stamps.

STORMCENTER SNAP SHOTS - By "Sat"

from Russia. While he was away he got word that a man who has worked in one of his glass factories at Wheeling for more than 25 years was running for assessor. The senator sent him a check for campaign expenses but, on his arrival in Chicago, hadn't heard whether "Hanky," the fellow's name, had won or lost.

When told that "Hanky" had been elected, the senator expanded with delight. "That's the best news yet," he said.

Charles H. Campbell of Indiana, a Roosevelt leader, who tried to oust former Congressman "Jim" Watson. Taft leader, as delegate at large from the Hoosier state, was for many years Watson's right hand man. They are still bosom friends.

Chicago women who want to vote are getting out a 16-page pamphlet called the "Patriot" which will be distributed among delegates and visitors. It appeals to the delegates to put a female suffrage plank in the platform, and, in addition, gives a lot of reasons why women should have the ballot.

Mrs. Herbert Berri of Brooklyn, who is here with her husband to attend the convention, was asked if she favors "votes for women," and this is how she answered the question: "The trouble with the women of this country is that they don't care."

Among the women who are coming to the convention are Mrs. Bass, wife of the New Hampshire governor; Mrs. H. D. Hatfield, wife of the republican nominee for governor of West Virginia; Mrs. Glascock, wife of the present governor of West Virginia; Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, daughter of Col. Roosevelt, and Mrs. John Hays Hammond.

ENGINEERS TO CONVENE

WINONA, Minn., June 13.—Following the recent booster meeting at the Arlington club rooms to prepare for the stationary engineers' convention to be held here on July 17 to 20, active work has been undertaken in the arrangement of the program for the gathering. F. J. Cammitch of St. Paul, the state vice-president, has remained here and is co-operating with the local committee.

Try Skin Absorption Instead of Cosmetics

(From the Woman Militant.)
The constant use of rouge and powder invites a coarsened, roughened condition of the skin, eruptions, enlarged pores and wrinkles. If you've learned this from experience, suppose you quit cosmetics and try what I recommend.

Ask your druggist for an ounce of ordinary mercolized wax and begin using this tonight. Apply like cold cream, washing it off in the morning. Keep this up for a week or two. The wax will literally absorb the coarse, colorless or blemished top skin, but so gradually as not to discommode you at all. Just as gradually the clear, velvety, naturally-tinted underskin comes to the surface. And mercolized wax becomes your everlasting friend.

For those wrinkles and large pores, make a face bath by dissolving an ounce of powdered saxolite in a half-pint weak hazel. This has remarkable astringent and tonic properties, and beneficial results come quickly.

DENOUNCES MESSAGE OF THE GOVERNOR

ST. PAUL, June 13.—Denouncing the special message of Governor Eberhart as undignified, uncalled for and unwarranted, Senator Lende yesterday spurred the senate to applause.

The house broke over the traces Wednesday, and, jumping through bars that had been pulled down, passed and suffered to be introduced legislation not contemplated in the program agreed upon at the beginning of the extra session.

GOPHERS ADOPT WISCONSIN BILL

Bill Fathered by Assemblyman McConnell on Primary Election Endorsed by Senate

ST. PAUL, June 13.—Minnesota's new primary law practically will be the Wisconsin plan of first and second choice selections for every state, city and county office with the exception of offices of towns, villages and cities of the third and fourth class, members of school, park and library boards in cities less than 100,000, the judiciary and county superintendent of school. With but one dissenting vote, the senate late Tuesday afternoon passed the Haycraft state-wide primary bill which is essentially the Wisconsin primary. Assemblyman J. E. McConnell of La Crosse, father of the Wisconsin second choice primary bill, spoke before the senate, previous to the passage of the bill. After lengthy discussion in which all the pros and cons were gone over in detail, the senate put its O. K. on the first and second choice primary by a vote of 61 to 1. Senator L. O. Cooke of Wabasha, registered a nay because he is convinced that the first and second choice feature is "mere political jobbery."

While the senate was passing the primary law, the elections committee of the house decided to report out a state wide primary bill which is substantially the senate bill, with the exception of the Burnquist amendment, providing for two registration days previous to the primary to prevent illegal voting. "This affects only cities of the first class. It is likely that the senate will concur in this action."

The friends of non-partisan nomination and election of candidates for the judiciary, including judges of the Supreme, district, probate and municipal court, won a signal victory both in the senate and before the house committee. The senate bill as passed provides for the non-partisan ballot for the judiciary at both primaries and general elections. In addition the law provides for non-partisan selection of all city officials in cities of the first class, in which class are St. Paul, Minneapolis and Duluth.

His honor, the mayor, announced that the meeting was called for the purpose of considering the offer of Alvord & Burdick to draw plans and specifications for water plant; to consider an ordinance for its first and second reading, bonding the city for water works, and to consider the purchase of certain lands for water works purposes.

On motion of Alderman Bartl the bonding ordinance was first taken up.

The city attorney read the report of the water committee and presented for its first and second reading an ordinance entitled "an ordinance providing for the issue of bonds for the purpose and erection of pumps, water mains, reservoirs, and pumping station for a public water works system in the city of La Crosse." Referred to ordinance and finance committees.

Alderman Mahoney offered the following resolution, which was adopted on call of the roll; ayes 14, nays 6. (Kohn, Neumann, F. G. Roth, Ryhold, Schneeberger, Torrance voting nay.)

RESOLUTION.

Resolved, by the mayor and common council, that the city clerk be and he is hereby instructed to forthwith advertise the proposed bonding ordinance for water works at the next regular meeting.

Alderman Kohn offered the following petition, which was granted by viva voce vote:

To the Honorable Mayor and Common Council of the City of La Crosse.

We, the undersigned, respectfully petition your honorable body to grant us the use of the market square and adjacent streets under supervision of the board of public works for a street carnival to be held June 10 to June 15, 1912, inclusive.

Yours very respectfully,
LA CROSSE BASEBALL ASS'N.

John A. Miller, President.

Alderman Bartl presented a petition for the sprinkling with oil of Fifteenth street from Main to State and State street from Fifteenth to Eighteenth streets. Referred to special street improvement committee.

Alderman Ryhold offered a resolution providing for filling in of the road on Twelfth street, between Green Bay and Travis streets. Referred to street and alley committee.

Alderman Mahoney read the report of Alvord & Burdick making a proposition for drawing plans and specifications for new water plant, but the council took no action on the same.

Alderman Mahoney offered the following report, upon which no action was taken:

To the Honorable Mayor and Common Council of the City of La Crosse.

Gentlemen:—Your special water committee, to whom was referred the proposition of Alvord & Burdick to do the engineering for the new water plant, beg leave to report that we have had this matter under consideration and find:

1st. That Messrs. Alvord & Burdick do not care to draw plans and specifications without having supervision of the work.

2nd. Under the charter the common council has no right to superintend the construction of the work without the co-operation and consent of the board of public works.

3rd. We have attempted to get an expression from the board of public works as to whether or not it would be willing to co-operate with the council and accept the appointment of the engineers recommended, but said board would not give us any assurance that they would so co-operate, and it therefore became necessary for your committee to take some other action.

It was then moved and carried in the committee that Mr. Mahony be called to La Crosse, requested to make changes in his plans and specifications satisfactory to the common council, and we proceed as before to carry out the Maltby plans.

We, therefore, recommend that the action of the special water committee as embodied in the above resolution be approved.

Respectfully submitted,
PAUL W. MAHONEY,
W. H. TARBOX,
OTTO GRANKE.

On motion of Alderman Bartl a test vote was taken in order to determine how many aldermen were for or against the ordinance to bond the city for $150,000 for water works purposes. The vote resulted as follows:

WASHINGTON, June 13.—"The opening of the Panama canal, the glorious credit of which will belong to the United States," said Senator John Sharp Williams of Mississippi, today in a conversation about the big enterprise and the method of its operation.

"It has been a splendid engineering feat, which will never be forgotten, but the greatest of all things in connection with its building is in the contemplation that its importance reaches, like the beams of the sun, far beyond the range of the immediate local benefits which we as a commercial nation may enjoy. It will draw the family of nations closer together, to a better understanding of each other, and consequently and necessarily will stimulate international trade anew."

"While I do not look for any marvelous returns on the investment at any time in the near future, believing that the advantages will accrue more in sentiment than substance, yet the accomplished fact will everywhere on the globe 'speed the plow,' as did the discovery of America with

"I think there should be no difficulty in operating the canal. Certainly a people—our people—who can so perfectly and grandly solve the problem of construction will not fail to work out in good time a sound business plan of operation. We should have done a great thing for ourselves, and the best part of the great thing is that we have done it for the world."

LOW TONES ARE A SEDATIVE

Pitch the Voice Deep When Under Nervous Tension and Self-Control Is Gained.

An excellent sedative for nervous excitement is found in using the voice at its lowest comfortable key. Immediate relief from stuttering is often obtained by dropping the voice from a high pitch to a lower tone. Teachers whose pupils become restless and unruly as they themselves grow tired and nervous will find that a low-pitched, quiet tone will relieve their own nervous tension, and prove wonderfully quieting to their pupils.

This simple expedient is also useful when you are trying to control or prevent weeping. There are times when a person fears to talk lest he break down and cry, yet must answer a question or carry on a conversation. Again, the deep lower tones of the voice, joined to slow, deep breathing, come to the rescue, and self-control is gained.

In any situation where one must struggle for self-possession, the low-pitched voice, with its impression of poise and self-confidence, is a wonderful aid. Even under ordinary circumstances the lower register of the speaking voice is richer and more musical.

BOURNE OF OREGON DECLARES
PRESENT SYSTEM IS NOT REPRESENTATIVE AND IS UN-AMERICAN

WASHINGTON, June 13.—The conventions of 1912 will probably be the last we shall ever hold in the United States for nomination of presidential candidates," said Senator Jonathan Bourne of Oregon today. "Events which have occurred in many states in the last few weeks and events which are now occurring at Chicago, demonstrate the correctness of my assertion that our present system of nominations is misrepresentative, unjust and un-American." Bourne continued. "The present campaign and pre-convention manipulations have greatly accelerated the presidential primary movement."

MISS NEVA WEST MARRIED

Miss Neva W. West, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. West, and Mr. Fred J. Collins were married last evening. The bride couple were attended by Miss Clara Fox as bridesmaid and Mr. Cecil Grimes as best man. Taking their positions inside of a white parlor in one corner of the parlor surrounded by palms, ferns and white carnations, Rev. George R. Longbrake of St. Paul's Universalist church, read the marriage lines, the ring service being used. Mr. Leland Widerick played the wedding march and Helen Scholl was flower girl. The bride was charming in a cream silk marquisette over messaline with pink trimming. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and bride's roses. Her only ornament was a handsome la valiere, the gift of the groom. The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Pauline Smith. After the ceremony refreshments were served from a prettily decorated table, white carnations and bride's roses being used. Miss Louise Rigger and Mrs. Roberts served, assisted by the Misses Gertrude Ives, Pauline Smith and Helen Ash. Miss May Collins presided at the punch bowl. The out of town guests were Miss Helen Bailey and Everett McElroy of Minneapolis. The young couple received many handsome gifts of silver and cut glass, but none will be more prized than a handsome fish set of silver and ivory which were presents from her grandmother to her mother upon her wedding day. Mr. and Mrs. Collins will reside in Baraboo, Wis.

BEAUTIFUL HOME MASS OF FLOWERS

Brilliant Reception Given
Yesterday Afternoon
by Mrs. and Miss Doerflinger

The handsome home of William Doerflinger with its beautiful appointments was the scene of a brilliant reception yesterday afternoon when Mrs. Doerflinger and Miss Doerflinger received their many friends who were out in full force attired in their most fetching toilets. The house was one mass of fragrant blooms arranged in Schaeffer's most artistic style. The reception hall was gorgeous with oriental poppies and tall vases filled with gladioli. The drawing room was cool and refreshing in white roses, white peonies and greens. The library, where the ice cream and cake were served was in red carnations. The color scheme in the library was yellow. The round mahogany table was covered with a handsome cluny cloth. In the center was a huge basket of maiden hair ferns and small yellow roses, a new and choice variety called after Mrs. Aaron Ward of Philadelphia. Mrs. Medary and Mrs. Gretchen Platz assisted about the rooms. Mrs. Doerflinger and Miss Doerflinger, assisted by Miss Leona Doerflinger, received their guests in the drawing room. Mrs. Doerflinger wore a handsome and becoming toilet of coral meteor crepe with transparent yoke and sleeves of cloth of gold. Miss Doerflinger's gown was white chiffon, trimmed with ruffles of oriental lace with a corsage bouquet of lilies of the valley. Miss Leona wore a simple and girlish gown of white marquisette. Mrs. John Bayer had charge of the dining room. Alternating at the table pouring the coffee and serving salad were Mrs. Orlando Holway, Mrs. Dengler, Mrs. Finch and Mrs. Schaeffer.

Their assistants were the Misses Emma and Louise Gund, Eleanor Marston, Dorothy Hixon and Ruth Heath. Mrs. Alfred Langenbach had charge of the ice cream room. Mrs. Frank Funke and Mrs. G. J. Egan served with the Misses Margery Gordon, Gretchen Salzer and Frances Ekbert as assistants. The large and commodious porch was arranged in a most artistic and fascinating manner with bamboo furniture, with chintz covering. The light was softened by green Venetian blinds, while easy couches and handsome rugs made it a delightful rest room. Here a delicious punch was served by Mrs. J. J. Esch and Mrs. Carl Langenbach, ably assisted by the Misses Ellen Hixon, Louise Easton, Eleanor Hixon and Irene Esch. Pink poppies gave a touch of color to the place. It was a delightful and beautiful reception.

The bridegroom, Mr. Frank J. McWilliams, is one of the popular business men of La Crosse, being a member of the Sherwood and McWilliams company.

"BRIBERY" SHOUT T. R. AND TAFT MEN TOGETHER

McKinley cite specific instances instead of generally alleged facts. This demand McKinley it was understood, was considering and a further statement on the matter was looked for.

The charges, coupled with the action of the national committee in throwing out all of the Roosevelt delegates up to the present, has infuriated the Roosevelt men to such a pitch that they have no hesitancy in declaring that if necessary they will resort to force to "get their rights."

An extended conference which lasted well into this morning and which began last night at 6 o'clock was renewed today. Everyone of the big leaders of the Roosevelt organization participated. It was decided that word would be sent Col. Roosevelt that he was needed here next week.

That was the reason that the contemplated big mass meeting of the Roosevelt forces had been put over until Monday, Roosevelt they said, would come here by that date and would tell the people of the country generally, and the delegates particularly that he intended getting his rights if he had to fight for them.

The Taft forces expect Roosevelt to come here. They also expect that he will sweep down on the hall with his delegates who have been thrown out by the national committee and demand that they be restored to the roll. And whether the colonel is here or not, Bill Flinn, Heney, Johnson, Cecil Lyon, Hadley of Missouri, as field captains of the Roosevelt forces, will insist on sweeping all before them.

To Block Organization

For hours today the Taft men were in consultation. William Barnes Jr., who has been selected to match wits with Flinn and to checkmate any move that may be made by the Roosevelt cohorts, talked things over with Penrose, Crane, Mulvane, Stevenson and other militant Taft men. They all agreed that the Roosevelt forces would try to seize the temporary organization from the moment Victor Rosewater, as chairman of the national committee, called to order. It was accepted as the most likely plan of the Roosevelt men that they would get entrance to the hall and prevent if possible the organization of the convention by the national committee.

If Rosewater is not permitted to proceed with the temporary organization, it is likely that an attempt will be made to eject some of the more noisy of the opposing forces from the hall. How successfully this will be accomplished and whether it will start a riot was the chief thing being considered by the Taft leaders today. They insisted that they were determined the party rules will be followed in organizing the convention and that only those delegates whose names are on the temporary roll will be seated. The Roosevelt leaders have the Taft men "up a tree" however, so far as the actual convention is concerned because of the successful manner in which they have concealed their plans.

Since his arrival here, Barnes has personally interviewed every Taft delegation leader on the grounds. He has collected from them their first list of delegates signed by each man showing that it was his intention to vote for the president's renomination. He has also been in touch with the uninstructed delegates and has sent word to President Taft that he will have a clear working majority of the convention when it meets. Mr. Barnes has also been working on the uninstructed delegates. He insisted today that with a few exceptions they are for Taft.

Nagel Ducks

The departure of Secretary Nagel for Missouri just as the national committee was about to take up consideration of contests from that state gave rise to much comment today. Gov. Hadley declared that the cabinet official was afraid to face the music. Last night he formally challenged him to stay here and go into the committee and go on record in the state contests. But Nagel refused, declaring he had no desire to split the party.

Senator Root, who is the choice of the Taft men for temporary chairman, will reach this city late this afternoon. The senator will bring a message from the president to the Taft leaders. His presence may aid in stiffening the delegates for Taft. He has many warm personal admirers in the Roosevelt column. This is especially so in Illinois, where about one-half of the delegations favors the senator and is opposed to making a fight on his selection.

character, from her father's house, where she then was, for the purpose of prostitution and for unlawful sexual intercourse.

Whereas, in truth and in fact, the said Ralph Allen was not then and there the manager of any theatrical company, nor was he obliged to employ young girls for theatrical purposes, nor did he desire to employ said complainant for such purpose.

Advised for Actress. In her testimony before Judge Baldwin this morning, Miss Nelson said that two or three weeks ago she read the following advertisement in the St. Paul Dispatch:

"WANTED—A young brunette to take the leading part in a show. Write for particulars. Ralph Allen, La Crosse, Wis."

She testified that she had had some experience in theatrical work, having been with a troupe four weeks last summer shortly after her graduation from high school, and that being out of employment she wrote to Allen, inquiring about

..... Lydia Nelson, on the stand this afternoon, said "Dr. Allen yesterday threatened bloodshed if I refused to live with him as his wife for one year. Previously I signed a contract to carry the leading role in a play, 'The Spanish Queen,' which he claimed he was about to put on." Two La Crosse girls took the stand this afternoon. Both declared that they had signed contracts to carry the star role in the same play. The judge refused to give the names of the girls.

a place in his show. After a considerable amount of correspondence during which she sent her photograph, she says that she came to La Crosse, Allen furnishing the money for her railroad fare and other expenses. She arrived here a little more than a week ago.

Her story as related on the stand under the questioning of District Attorney James Thompson and A. C. Wolfe, attorney for the defense, is in substance as follows:

"Dr. Allen met me at the depot and took me to the Law hotel. I stayed there one night, when he obtained a room for me in the house of Dr. Lahn, his partner, 310 South Sixth street.

"Shortly after my arrival I signed a contract to take the leading part in 'The Wrong Wife,' the play which Dr. Allen said he was preparing to send on the road. Although he had one or two costumes he said that he had not yet received his stage outfits. Neither had he received the books containing the parts in the play, although he said that he had sent for them.

Wrote to Other Girls.

"I did considerable corresponding for Dr. Allen at his direction with other girls that he was trying to hire to take part in the play. In all I wrote to twenty-six girls in the week that I have been here. I signed my name as assistant manager of the show company. We received five answers to our letters, three from girls in St. Paul and two from girls in small towns in Wisconsin. I suppose that more answers will arrive and are perhaps in today's mail.

"While we were waiting for the books of parts, Dr. Allen said that we could begin practice from what he remembered of the different parts. He took the part of the leading man and I the leading lady. We practiced in his office at 315 1/2 Pearl street several different times. Until we began practicing these parts I had no suspicion that Mr. Allen was not a good man. I noticed that the parts he chose to practice were love scenes and that he took even more advantage of his part than could have been interpreted from the lines. I objected and fought him off, but he forced his attentions upon me with increasing ardor.

Followed to Her Room.

"One night he followed me to my room and I could not get rid of him. He tried to tire me out and waited for me to fall asleep. At 3 o'clock in the morning I went down stairs and asked the people there to help me. Dr. Allen left then.

"Dr. Allen protested that all his actions were to be part of the play and we were only rehearsing but when he proposed to have me sign the agreement that we should stick together for better or worse and for good or bad forever, and that I should act the part of a wife to him, I realized his purpose and tried to get away. He wanted me to keep the agreement secret and threatened to kill me if I did not sign it with him. He said that he was from Texas and that I knew how they treated women who were not true to their name in that state.

"There was another girl named 'Della,' who Allen had with him that he said was in his confidence. He told me at one time that she was his wife. He was training Della for a part in another show that he said he was preparing to put on. Della was to take the part of a magician and was practicing several tricks such as releasing herself from a bag in which she had been tied with her hands tied together.

"I was afraid to break away from Allen and I was afraid to stay with him. I had no money—what little I did have mysteriously disappeared—and I was afraid he would kill me. He said that he would follow me wherever I would go. I wrote to my parents but he took the letter away from me before I could send it."

Groceryman Aids

Allen was arrested at the Lahn residence, 510 South Sixth street last night by Captain Larry Dugan. Captain Dugan was called to the scene by James Murray, proprietor of a grocery store. The girl appealed to Murray for help and he telephoned to the police station. When Captain Dugan arrived Miss Nelson told him part of her story and said that she wanted to go back home.

She said, "I am going back to the house for my clothes and if I do not return, come after me, there is something wrong." Captain Dugan waited for her the stipulated time and when she did not appear he went after her.

The girl told her story in the police station and Allen's arrest this morning was the result. Sensational developments are expected at the hearing this afternoon.

In the event that Allen is indicted by Judge Baldwin he will be tried before a jury. District Attorney James Thompson acting as prosecutor.

James B. Murray testified on the stand this afternoon.

"The girl came running into my place about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. She stayed until about 6 o'clock. She said that Allen had threatened to shoot her. She asked if there wasn't some place up stairs where she could hide. I told her that I would protect her. I telephoned the police, and Mr. Dugan came out."

In regard to the reputation of the Lahn home Mr. Murray said: "They have only been there a couple of weeks. I have noticed three women about the place but I do not know them. The place was noisy but I know nothing about its moral atmosphere."

Captain Larry Dugan on the stand said: "I went out when Mr. Murray called up. I found the girl in almost hysterics. She said that she was afraid to go back to the house. I went with her to get her clothes. I asked Allen if he had any money that belonged to the girl but he denied that he had. I took the girl to the police station. I heard loud voices upstairs in the house but did not investigate."

Chief John Webber in his testimony said: "I have known Allen since his arrival in the city but I never knew that he was in the show business." The chief submitted as evidence a handbill advertising Allen as a doctor.

CLOUDBURSTS KILL TWO IN WYOMING

CHEYENNE, Wyo., June 13.—Two persons are known to be dead, at least 200 homeless and thousands of dollars' damage has been done as the result of three cloudbursts in various parts of Wyoming. Several other persons are reported drowned. News today says that the storm that swept Buffalo yesterday also visited the town of Wheatland, Platte county and Laramie county. Both deaths occurred at Buffalo. When a 12-foot wall of water swept down through Clear Creek canyon, Rodney Childs plunged into the flood and rescued his sister. He was just emerging from the water carrying his sister's baby, when the swelling flood carried him away with the body in his arms.

Upon being informed by a member of the police force that she would be required to procure a license, Mrs. Samuels said to have become indignant and to have refused. She later procured a license.

agreement between the Taft and Roosevelt men to divide the delegation. Governor Hadley had previously declared that there never had been any such agreement. It was conclusively shown that a majority of the delegates to the state convention voted for both the Roosevelt delegates and for the resolutions of instruction, and the case was so clear that long before it was finished, the Taft members of the committee were discussing it among themselves. It was soon found that the committee was unanimous for the proposition and immediately after the hearing the vote was taken and was unanimous.

When the vote on the Missouri contest for delegates at large was announced outside the committee room Governor Hadley and the rest of the Roosevelt contingent held a jollification.

Give Taft Twelve

Twelve Taft delegates were this morning seated by the national committee against Roosevelt contestants. They were the representatives from the second, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth districts of Mississippi. The fight was at times bitter and allegations of fraud and bulldozing of negro voters were frequent on the part of the Roosevelt faction. Their complaints brought them nothing, however, and they were unable to force a roll call on any of the districts.

In the eighth district contest, W. P. Howard, instructed by the district convention to vote for Taft, was seated by the committee. He told the committeemen that he had made up his mind to give his vote to Roosevelt, however. He also admitted that when he had refused to sign a Taft pledge, the Taft men had instituted a contest for his seat.

The national committee at 11:45 began the hearing of Missouri contests which were expected to engender the most bitter feeling of the entire committee session to date. The Roosevelt forces had all of their fighting men in the committee, Borah, Kellogg, Stubbs, Heney, Lyon and Littauer and were ready to make the issue as sharply defined as possible. A rumor that the committee would split the state delegation at large was widely circulated.

Would Bar Heney

What threatened to precipitate a bitter conflict in the republican national committee today was hurriedly squelched by the majority of the committee, who objected to a scene. Committeeman Sturgeon, soon after Francis J. Heney wandered into the room, armed with a proxy and settled back in his seat ready for a fight on the Missouri contests scheduled for today, jumped to his feet and after demanding of Victor Rosewater whether a meeting of the national committee was in progress and receiving an affirmative answer, said:

"Then, sir, I move that this committee exclude from its councils Francis J. Heney, a democrat, and refuse to recognize the proxy under which he is present here."

A dozen members were on their feet in an instant. Surprise and chagrin was in evidence on the faces of most of the big Taft leaders and it was plain that the move was unexpected and unwelcome.

Senator Borah, however, secured recognition and asked where the record was that showed Heney was a democrat. Heney positively denied that he was a democrat and after a brief and distinctly sarcastic remark by several members of the committee, a motion to table Sturges' motion was carried by a viva voce vote, only Sturges seeming to vote in the negative.

Missouri Fight Bitter

Missouri, with its bitterest row between the Roosevelt and Taft adherents, promised to furnish the day's sensation in the hearing of contests before the national committee.

Fourteen delegates are at stake in the Missouri contests. Governor Hadley is leading the Roosevelt delegation at large, and four delegates from the convention and Joseph E. Black heads the Taft delegation.

In advance of the hearing of the contests, Roosevelt leaders from Missouri were admitting that they would not be surprised if the national committee gave all the contested seats to the Taft men.

The claim of the Taft leaders in Missouri is that Hadley and other Roosevelt leaders broke an agreement whereby the four delegates at large from the state were to be equally divided between Taft and Roosevelt. They charge that Gov. Hadley had policed the convention hall with policemen, detectives and state militiamen, "thereby casting odium upon the justice and good citizenship of Missouri republicans and treating the convention as a band of ruffians incapable of holding a peaceable meeting."

Some of the Taft delegates went home, according to the Taft claims, and the convention was then controlled by Hadley and the other Roosevelt leaders who proceeded to violate the alleged agreement and to select Roosevelt men. The next morning the Taft men met at the Planters' Hotel and named a contesting delegation.

40 More to Taft

The results in the national committee Wednesday were such as to cast deep gloom over the Roosevelt camp.

In all contests involving forty seats were decided and every one of the places were given to Taft men. This makes a total of 141 contested seats that have been awarded to Taft and only one to Roosevelt.

All day Wednesday was a runaway for the Taft men before the committee. After the committee had given Taft the two contested seats from the Fourth California district,

TESTS SHOW VALUE OF PASTEURIZATION

MADISON, Wis., June 13.—To demonstrate the value of pasteurized cheese, the process for which has been worked out at the College of Agriculture during the past two years, the University of Wisconsin is co-operating with the cheese factory at Spring Green in the manufacture of this kind of cheese. The college furnishes a cheese maker and an outfit for the manufacture of the cheese, and half of the cheese each day is made by the university maker and the other half by the regular factory maker. The milk is exactly alike, except for the pasteurizing and the cheese is sold to the same dealer.

BELIEVE 2,000 HOMELESS

CORDOVA, Alaska, June 13.—It is believed here that fully 2,000 persons are homeless as the result of the eruption of Katmai volcano. A mass meeting was held here and unanimously acted on a request from Seward to join in a petition to President Taft to raise funds for the relief of victims of the disaster. The petition will urge Miss Mabel Boardman of the American Red Cross to co-operate with the president.

COLONEL ACCUSES TAFT OF TREASON

Declares if President Accepts Nomination from Politicians He Defies People

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., June 13.—With an attack on his opponents in the Republican national committee and on President Taft, Col. Roosevelt last night again protested against the course of affairs at Chicago.

In a statement issued at Sagamore hill he said Mr. Taft assumed "that the presidency is to be treated as a gift within the bestowal of the politicians, in defiance of the duly expressed wish of the people." "Such conduct," Col. Roosevelt wrote, "comes dangerously near being treason to the whole spirit of our institutions, to the whole spirit of democratic free government." The former president laid especial stress on the action of the committee in seating the Taft delegates from the Thirteenth district of Indiana, notwithstanding the fact, he said, that the Roosevelt men were clearly in the majority in the convention which was called to elect these two delegates.

MR. PERKINS IS HAPPY

DECLARES CAPTURE OF CALIFORNIA DELEGATES IS LIKE STEALING RED-HOT STOVE

CHICAGO, June 13.—George W. Perkins, New York financier, spent considerable time yesterday about the Roosevelt headquarters in the Congress hotel. He was closeted with Senator Dixon.

Following his long conference with Senator Dixon, Perkins declined to tell what they had talked about. He appeared in a very happy frame of mind, however, and smiled when asked about the national committee's action on the California delegates.

"To seat the Taft delegates in the Fourth California district," he said, "will have the same effect upon Taft people as though they had stolen a red hot stove."

When asked how much money Colonel Roosevelt's campaign had cost, the financier said: "I don't know. And I think people should quit talking so much about how much is being spent to nominate Col. Roosevelt, and give some attention to several men like Secretary Hilges, who are being paid by the government for their time and are spending it in trying to force the nomination of President Taft. I do not believe, however, that Roosevelt's campaign cost as much as Taft's."

Perkins said he did not know when Roosevelt was coming to Chicago; in fact, he did not know whether or not he is coming.

TAFT PLATFORM TO OPPOSE COLONEL'S

CHICAGO, June 13.—Salient planks of President Taft's platform, which will be submitted to the resolutions committee of the republican national convention, according to Charles N. Wheeler, writing for the Chicago Inter-Ocean, are:

1. Irrevocable and unyielding opposition to the proposed recall of the judiciary.
2. Extension of the civil service laws to cover postmasters, district attorneys and bank examiners.
3. Preservation and strengthening of the Sherman anti-trust law.
4. Revision of tariff schedules only as recommended by the tariff board of experts.
5. A strong reaffirmation of the policy of protection to American industry and protection to American workmen.
6. Amendment of the national banking law to provide for the creation of a national reserve fund and the establishment of a more elastic currency.
7. Advocacy of the workingmen's compensation law and further safeguards for workers engaged at hazardous employment.
8. No let-up in the federal prosecution of "illegal trusts" and monopolies in restraint of trade.
9. Strong international peace pronouncement, predicated on a general arbitration proposition to be adopted by the civilized nations.

TAFT TO FIGHT FOR THE COURT

President Will Veto the Budget Unless Action Is Taken Favoring Commerce Court

WASHINGTON, June 13.—Unless some provision is made for continuation of the commerce court, President Taft will veto the budget appropriation bill, with its provisions cutting any appropriation after July 1. This is the authentic word that the president's friends took to Capitol hill today. The executive is also reported to have told house leaders that unless the "joker" in the army bill legislating Major General Wood out of office as chief of staff, is amended, he will also disapprove that measure.

The president is said to have declared rather than agree to these two features of the measures he will stay in Washington with congress all summer and fall.

NEW QUARTERS TO OPEN SATURDAY

Boomers and Spellbinders to Be on Exhibition in New Campaign Rooms Just Engaged

CHICAGO, June 13.—In order to care for the public as well as the delegates the Taft and Roosevelt leaders will open new public headquarters on Saturday. Congressman McKinley for the Taft forces has rented the entire second floor of the Congress hotel and seven rooms on the floor above and there the Taft leaders will receive all who want to call. Spellbinders of note, who have been relegated more or less to the discard in recent years will be put in charge while the bosses will pass through in a hurry once in a while so that the outsiders may see what a real politician looks like.

While this is going on similar scenes will be enacted in the Florentine room in the Congress, which has been rented at an expense of $500 a day by Senator Dixon as a Roosevelt headquarters. Besides politicians a brass band will be in attendance here and songs extolling "Teddy" will be sung to popular airs by noted singers hired for the occasion.

Another headquarters that promises to be popular will be that of William Seymour Edwards, the newly elected committeeman from West Virginia. He said today that he would have 100 specially selected Roosevelt boomers here by Friday. They are coming on a special train. In order to take care of them the entire third floor of the Sherman house has been engaged. The delegation will bring their own cook and several white garbed waiters to look after the comfort of those who may drop in on them while here.

Edwards will have the entire floor decorated in blue and gold, the official colors of the state. He will also keep a band of music on the job which will aid in attracting the crowds to his headquarters.

TITANIC DISASTER CAN'T BE REPEATED

LONDON, June 13.—The sinking of the White Star line Titanic with 1,500 persons aboard, was a most extraordinary accident, the like of which never happened before and may never happen again, said Sir Frederick Chalmers, former member of the marine department of the board of trade, today before the Titanic inquirers. For that reason, Chalmers said, he could see no valid cause why the maritime regulations of the board of trade should be changed. He said that no lessons were to be learned from the disaster, justifying a revision of the rules.

COUNTRY SCHOOL FOR CITY BOYS

Latest Development of Education Is Institution in Country for Children

GROWTH OF BOARD SCHOOL

Day Pupils Instead Boarding Boys Are Latest Developments of the Plan

"Back to the country" is the cry of the advocates of one of our sanest philanthropic movements. To free thousands of our best citizens from the unwholesome and harmful influences of crowded houses, poor light and bad air, and to restore them to the open fields, a freedom from unnatural restraints, and the blessings of God's sunshine, are held to be objects worthy of the best efforts of the American people.

Realizing this fact, philanthropists have made an effort to find some means by which boys who live in the city may spend at least the day in the country, and at the same time have the advantages of an education in the best schools. Some people of means, those who can afford the money necessary for an experiment, have hit upon a plan which has solved the problem, it is believed, and that is the plan of founding "country day schools for city boys." And girls, too, are going to be included among those who share the benefits of this movement. These country day schools are described by Dr. William Starr Myers, assistant professor of history and politics, Princeton university, in a publication just issued for free distribution by the United States bureau of education.

New Type of School
Up to 15 years ago the only two possible things for the city family, if a healthy outdoor life was desired for the children, was to live at a country home six months of the year and each day send the children in town to school, or else break all home ties for a large part of the year by sending the boys and girls away to boarding school. A group of men and women of intelligence and enterprise in Baltimore had the vision of a better plan and the faith to act upon it, and the Gilman Country School for Boys, a new type of educational institution, is the result.

The educational history of the country, says the bureau of education's monograph, when viewed from the standpoint of this latest development shows that as the cities gradually built up, the American boy's opportunities for healthful recreation gradually diminished. There were fewer vacant lots for young America to play upon, and in still later days even cable and electric cars were powerless to make continually accessible the open places necessary for exercise and fresh air. So much time was taken up in going to and from the "athletic fields," which the schools must now provide, that little chance was left for the good, long, hard play that is so necessary for the proper development of a healthy boy. The gymnasium was a new advantage, it is true, but at best it merely gave opportunity for exercise indoors or in bad weather, which was more like work than the healthful outdoor sports and games and had the added disadvantage of making exercise a business.

To Keep Off Streets
Thoughtful parents were beginning to see the necessity of finding some way to keep their boys off the streets, and perhaps away from the bad associates of the hours out of school, and the only way open to them was that afforded by the boarding schools springing up all over the country, many of them under church direction or influence. Thus, among the more favorably situated classes, to send the boys away to a large boarding school of this type became the established custom.

There is no question, according to the United States bureau of education's publication, that a large boarding school offers great educational advantages to those boys whose fathers can afford to pay for them. "But it has one serious drawback," says Dr. Myers. "It cuts off the boy from home when 12 or 15 years old, the very age of all others when he needs the influences of centering around home and family, which are of greater importance than any other in life of a normal, well trained, healthy child. The influence of a teacher is tremendous, but at best it can only supplement and add to that of a conscientious father and tender mother." Realizing this difficulty, the country school was founded, and it bids fair to make on the educational history of our time a still greater mark than it has already made in the comparatively short time it has been in existence.

Woman Founder
The whole movement began at Baltimore, Md., through the efforts of Mrs. Francis K. Carey, wife of a prominent attorney of that city. Prompted by the wish for a proper school for her own child without separating him from the influences of home, Mrs. Carey worked out the idea of an all-day country school for city boys, perhaps combined with a boarding school, which would furnish the routine of an entire day in the country with study and sports alike under the teachers' direction. She discussed the matter with Mrs. William Cabell Bruce, and finally enlisted the interest of Dr. Daniel Colt Gilman, the lamented president of Johns Hopkins university, who together with Francis K. Carey, William Cabell Bruce, and the late Hon. William A. Fisher were so convinced of the advantages and sound common sense of the idea that they felt themselves justified in making a definite attempt to establish such a school.

Twenty-seven of the leading citizens of Baltimore raised $12,000 with which to start the venture and from beginnings the school grew rapidly, until today it is in possession of a finely equipped plant, situated on about 70 acres of ground some four miles from the center of the city. This school was established in 1877 and rapidly demonstrated its fitness to cope with the problem which brought it into being. In 1907, an even ten years later, another school of the same type was established for New York city boys by Frank S. Hackett, who, however, knew nothing of the Baltimore experiment. Since then similar schools have sprung up in Newton, Mass.; Bronxville, N. Y.; Buffalo, N. Y.; Kansas City, Mo.; Richmond, Va.; Columbus, Ohio; Minneapolis, Minn.; and Louisville, Ky. A second country school has also been established near Baltimore.

Change Felt
With the mere establishment of these country schools for city boys, the effects of the movement, surprising as they have been, have by no means reached their limit. A change of attitude is noticed in many of the old boarding schools located near the cities. Their faculties are impressed by the wisdom and growth of the new schools, and feeling its influence, they are welcoming day pupils from the nearby cities. They are finding that the old fear that boarding and day pupils will not get along well together is groundless.

All the schools in question are owned either by individuals or by corporations. In fact the latter is the general rule; even in case of individual ownership, there are boards of advisers or trustees.

In many cases the idea of financial return is absent from the ownership, all profits being used to increase the scope or efficiency of the school. The stockholders, if there are any, look upon their investment as being in reality an endowment for the advancement of education.

The schools are easily accessible from the city. They vary in distance from 2 to 15 miles and in time needed for the journey from 15 to 40 minutes. It has been found that it is difficult to draw patronage from a distance requiring more of a trip than may be made in half an hour.

The grounds, which vary in extent from three or four acres to the 70 of the Gilman school, contain facilities for football, baseball, tennis and other sports, an aggregate of about 25 forms of which are carried on.

More Day Pupils
In these schools the number of day pupils heavily outbalances the number of boarders. Many parents make the compromise of having their boys live at school from Monday morning till Friday or Saturday and then enjoy the benefits of home over Sunday.

On account of the location near a city, with all its advantages and attractions, especially when there is a large university such as Johns Hopkins or Columbia or Harvard, near at hand, these schools are able to secure teachers of a high standard with less difficulty than the more isolated boarding school, located some distance away in the country. Libraries, theaters, lectures, music, the large stores, all these are advantages well worth considering for the scholar of today is no longer a hermit or a mere bookworm. If so, he is not the type of man that will prove successful in the handling of boys. What is needed is the person who, no matter how great his scholarly training may be, has the broad, hearty interests and sympathies of the well informed and experienced all-around man. And this is the kind of teachers that these schools have placed on their faculties. It is interesting to note how many of the foremost universities and colleges of both America and Europe are represented in these faculties by advanced as well as by bachelor's degrees.

The faculties are large enough to guarantee small classes, so that the intimate personal touch may never be lacking. Most of the schools average one member of the faculty to every ten pupils, a proportion allowing unusual personal attention and thoroughness of work. The ages of boys usually vary from eight years to 18 or 20. By taking charge of the pupils when very young a firm foundation in the elements of learning is laid, upon which later may be built the firm structure of scholarship that is needed for the more advanced work in the college or university.

While it appears that none of the regular country schools is under church direction or supervision, yet all lay stress upon a broad minded, sincere religious life as the ideal for every mortal man. The day opens with a religious service and Bible readings or moral and ethical instruction. Among the school patrons are Protestant and Catholic, Jew and Gentile, but all are able and willing to join in the practice of a broadly tolerant religion that is worthy of the American ideal.

Thus has the country school solved all or nearly all the problems incident to offering the advantages of boarding schools without the disadvantages. Like the boarding school, it gives the boy a sound college-preparatory course. Like the boarding school also, it keeps him in the open, with plenty of fresh air and room for healthful play, and away from the streets, the matinees or the moving picture shows, and from diversions that are perhaps really harmful. At the same time, it spares the parents from the necessity of losing sight of their children for a large part of the year.

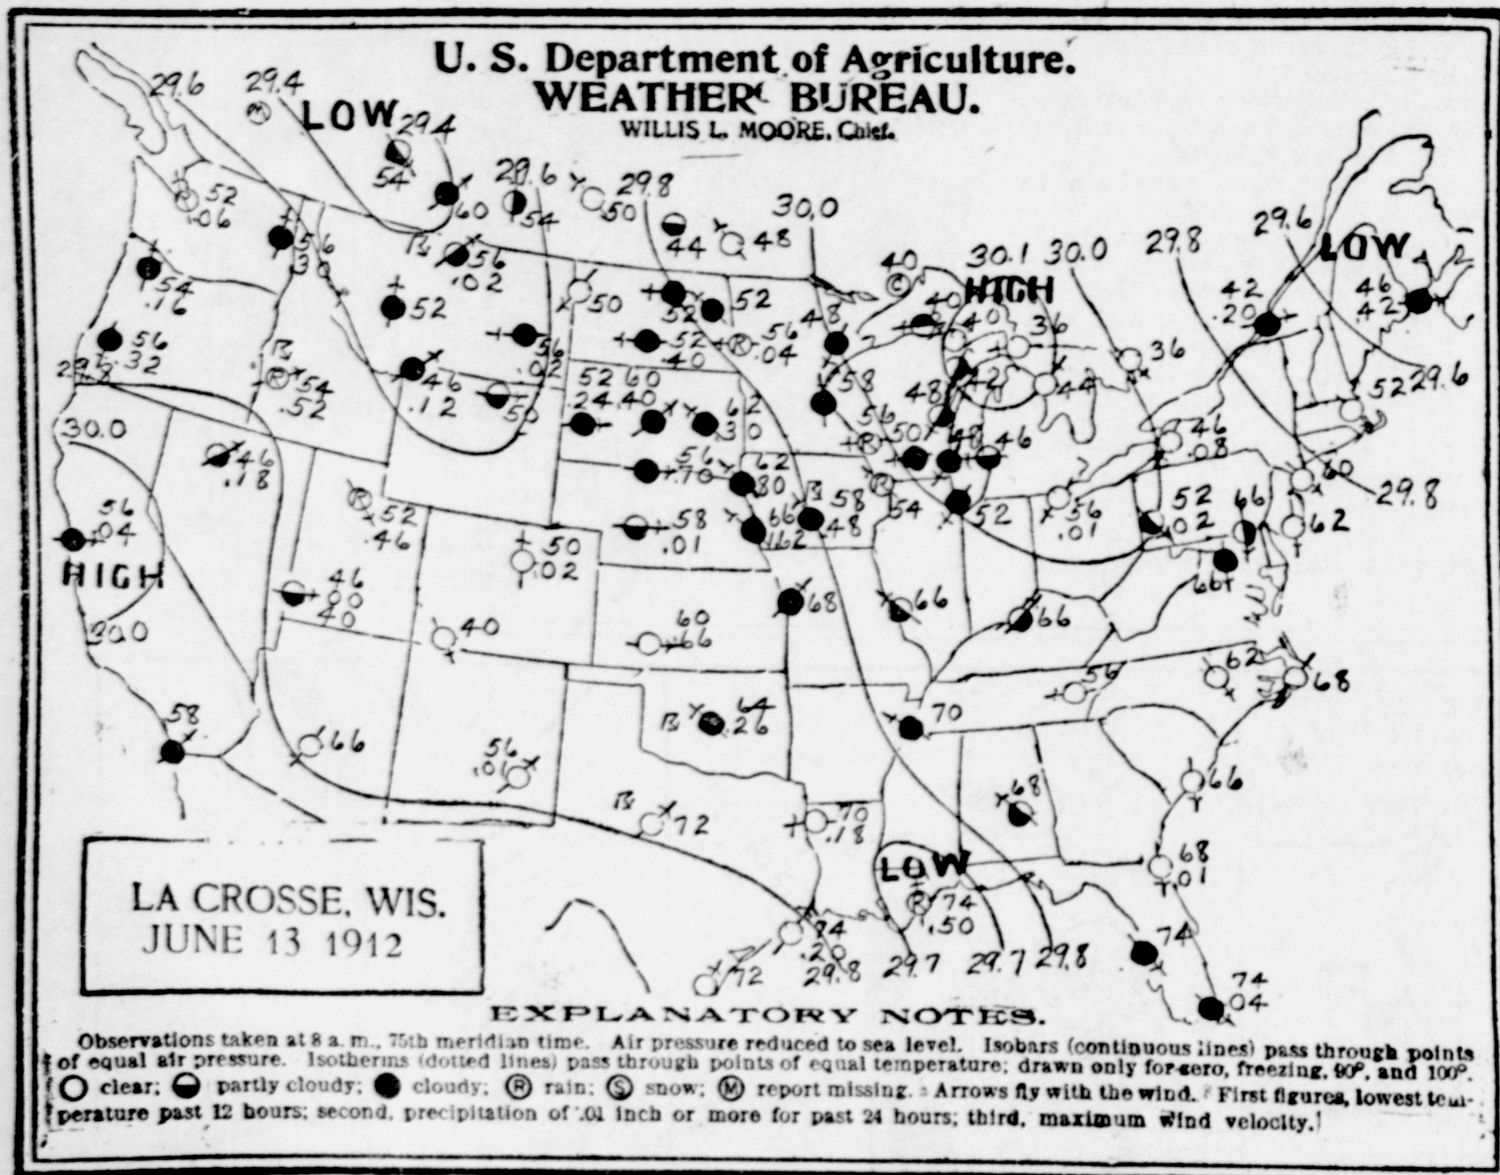

The best influence of a home are never supplied by a boarding school; and no teacher or any other person can show the loving care and affection or insure the softening and refining influences which a mother, of all people, can best give. The right sort of a father should and does have a better influence on his son than any school master, and if the master gets a stronger hold on the boy the father suffers in seeing his son more at ease in the companionship and preferring the society of another man to his own. Furthermore, according to the government publication, the boarding school boy, when at home on his vacation, will be inclined to spend his time in a round of excitement and festivities which would tend to pervert his idea of what a home is and how it should be enjoyed.

The great problem still remaining before the country school is the contrivance of means whereby these same advantages of education, country life, and home environment may be extended to all the enormous mass of city school children whose parents are not of the more prosperous classes. Under present circumstances the country schools are necessarily expensive, and this matter of expense may be considered to be the greatest handicap under which the movement rests.

The charge of tuition ranges from $125 to $450 per year for day pupils, varying somewhat with the age of the boy and the location of the school, the average being about $250. The charge for boarding pupils is more moderate than that made by the large boarding schools of the standard type. It ranges from $100 to $950 per year, with an average of about $700.

But money considerations can never permanently halt educational advance in America. If school boards in country districts can consolidate schools for the purposes of efficiency and arrange for the transportation of children from widely scattered districts to a central school, why can not the method be reversed in the case of the city children, ask the United States bureau of education's writer. This means, according to the federal bureau, the arrangement of such matters as transportation, the noonday lunch, and supervision of athletics and play. It also means, says the bureau, the formation of a public opinion necessary for inaugurating the movement and carrying it through.

NO DOUBT OF HER IDENTITY

Spirit of Woman Who Died in Automobile Accident Easily Recognized by Friend.

"There's a spirit here," gasped one of the speakers at a Spiritualistic meeting, "who seems to be very much oppressed in her breathing. She—she died in an accident—much oppressed in her breathing. It was," she continued, gazing intently into space and clutching her chest, "an automobile accident. Does any one here know any one who was in a fatal automobile accident?" she asked suddenly, glancing about the hall.

"I do," from a woman in the audience. "The wheels of the automobile went over her chest," went on the medium graphically, "broke her ribs, caused oppression in her breathing. Anyway, I see her dying in an automobile accident!"

"Yes—yes!" cried the woman eagerly, "that's Mrs. Autoway! I knew it! She was in an automobile accident! At least, that is," she explained, "she was run over by a grocery wagon, but she was took to the hospital in an automobile. She got well of that and died of typhoid fever. But you come near enough to it to prove her identity."

Of Course.

"When the police arrested that man as a 'fence' his lawyer couldn't clear him." Strange; it ought to be easy for anybody to whitewash a fence."—Baltimore American.

Chicago Grain Letter

CHICAGO, June 13.—Light receipts and strong cables inclined the wheat market to be bullish on the start today. But reports of weather more favorable to the growing crop contributed to bringing prices to a lower level before the day was advanced.

In the corn market prices held firm throughout the day's trading. The oats market responded to the drop in wheat prices and moved slightly downward.

Provisions were weaker.

With Johnson on the mound, Washington easily made it four straight from Detroit, making thirteen straight wins for the Senators. The Reds reformed and beat the Phillies. Suggs, by superb twirling, stopped his team mates' slide.

The Yankees made a demonstration of how not to play baseball and lost to the White Sox, 11 to 2. The Red Sox kept their one-game lead in the American league by grabbing a victory from the lowly Browns.

While the official scorer says Marquard gets credit for yesterday's Giant victory over the Cubs, the secretary of the league has yet to pass judgment. Daily obituary note: The Pirates beat Brooklyn.

HILLICKER WINS PITCHERS' BATTLE

Helgeson Twirls a Fine Game but Luck Helps Pirates to a 3 to 1 Victory

Helgeson and Leslie Hillicker were the principals in about as pretty a hurlers' duel as has ever been seen here yesterday afternoon and although the Pirate slab artist emerged victorious he had to have all the luck breaks with him. The score of this game, which was one of the fastest and best played at League park this year, was 3 to 1 with Winona having the long end of the score.

For the first five innings the teams went along neck and neck with neither team having scored, so perfect was the work of each twirler. During that time Helgeson had the better of his rival for only one visitor got to second base alive while the Outcasts were on the third sack twice, once with nobody dead, but the fates were against them and try as they would they couldn't shove the runner across the pan.

The visitors really earned only one of their tallies, the one they registered in the eighth. A big element of luck figured in the pair they got in the seventh and had it not been for this extremely fortunate break they would never have gotten them.

Leslie Hillicker had a shade of advantage over Helgeson on the mound but it was slight and the local heaver did not deserve to lose for he pitched gilt edged ball. Helgeson let his opponents down with nine singles and he issued two passes but in three rounds they bunched a pair of swats and in two of those frames they counted, a double killing in the fifth putting the Pirates out with-out damaging the pan. Except for those stanzas Helgeson easily out-pitched his rival and set the batters down regularly.

Hillicker pitched a wonderful game and but six hits, no two of which came together, were made off him. These swats included two triples, one of which resulted in the only local score, while another was a single but gave Brown a double when it took a bad bound over Calhoun's head.

Bond juggled his batting order and a crippled team had to be sent into the field as Bond and Van Horn were both out. Bond's injured hand kept him from participating in the struggle while Van Horn was out because of an injury to his shoulder. Bues was sent to first base and Morse covered second. Schroeder, a Toledo outfielder, appeared in left field.

Dame Fortune frowned on the Outcasts in the first stanza and spoiled a run with a man on third and two down. Louis Hillicker robbed Brown of a hit by going back of second for his bounder and getting him at first. The Outcasts' best chance was in the fifth which Morse blew open with a triple to left. Again the locals were unlucky, as Bues lifted a tall fly which Curtis gathered in, Helgeson fanned and Du Chien flew out to Brackett, closing the opening.

The break came in the sixth, when on one down Dayton dumped a slow bounder to the right of Helgeson and beat the throw for a hit. Larson let Curtis' grounder get through him, giving him his life on what should have been the third out and letting Dayton to second. A passed ball moved both men up. Ginther hit to Larson, who heaved to Brown ahead of Dayton but Brown dropped the peg, letting Dayton count and Curtis go to third. Then Ginther let them catch him off first and while they were pursuing him Curtis sneaked home while Ginther made second. McKee singled and Ginther beat it for the plate. Meinert's peg was true and Brown tagged the runner. He dropped the ball afterwards but the umpire didn't see it and refused to change his decision. Calhoun's fly ended the round.

The Pirates earned their run in the eighth and Curtis began proceedings with a single, advancing on a sacrifice. McKee's single scored him. The Outcasts' only run came in the eighth, Meinert knocking out a triple with one gone. Weigent fanned, but Dayton threw wide to first on Larson's bounder and Meinert scored. Score: R H E
